

• FEBRUARY 2017 •

HOT TITLES
FEBRUARY 2017

• Fiction •

Bone Box

Faye Kellerman

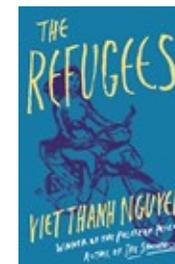

When Rina Lazarus makes a shocking discovery in the woods near her upstate New York community, her husband, police detective Peter Decker, becomes embroiled in a series of gruesome, decades-old unsolved murders.

All Our Wrong Todays

Elan Mastai

Living in an alternate world of flying cars, moon bases and plentiful food, aimless Tom Barren is blindsided by an accident of fate that leads to a time-travel mishap that lands him in our less-than-ideal 2016, where he discovers wonderful unexpected versions of his own life.

The Refugees

Viet Thanh Nguyen

The Pulitzer Prize-winning author of The Sympathizer presents a new collection of stories, written over a 20-year period, which explores questions of home, family, immigration, the American experience and the relationships and desires for self-fulfillment that define our lives.

Garden of Lamentations

Deborah Crombie

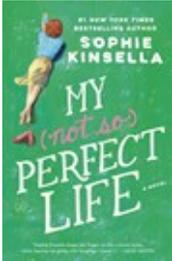

While Gemma James investigates the murder of a young nanny who appears to be one of a series of victims, Duncan Kincaid uncovers disturbing information about seemingly unrelated cases that may be putting his friends and family into mortal danger.

Lincoln in the Bardo

George Saunders

A long-awaited first novel by the National Book Award-nominated, New York Times best-selling author of Tenth of December traces a night of solitary mourning and reflection as experienced by the 16th President after the death of his 11-year-old son at the dawn of the Civil War.

My (Not So) Perfect Life

Sophie Kinsella

After being unexpectedly fired by Demeter Farlowe, her brilliant and creative boss, Katie Brenner retreats to her family's farm to help them set up a vacation business, but when Demeter shows up out of the blue, Katie has a new chance at re-evaluating-and resetting-her life.

A Piece of the World

Christina Baker Kline

Tells the story of Christina Olson, who served as the host and inspiration for artist Andrew Wyeth, despite an incapacitating illness. By the New York Times best-selling author of Orphan Train.

I See You

Clare MacKintosh

Spotting her own picture in a classified ad referencing a mysterious website, Zoe discovers that other women who have appeared in the ad have become the victims of increasingly violent crimes. Discussion guide available online. By the international best-selling author of I Let You Go.

Shining City

Tom Rosenstiel

The president of the United States hires fixer Peter Rena to vet his nominee for the Supreme Court.

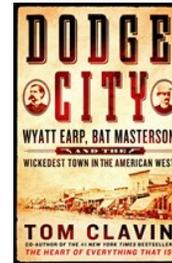

•Nonfiction•

Norse Mythology

Neil Gaiman

The New York Times best-selling author of A View From the Cheap Seats presents a bravura rendering of the major Norse pantheon that traces the genesis of the legendary nine worlds and the exploits of its characters, illuminating the characters and natures of iconic figures Odin, Thor and Loki.

Dodge City: Wyatt Earp, Bat Masterson and the Wickedest Town in the West

Tom Clavin

The first definitive story of the taming of the Wild West, set in Dodge City, the most deprived and criminal town in the nation.

Homo Deus: A Brief History of Tomorrow

Yuval Noah Harari

The New York Times best-selling author of Sapiens examines the civilized world's phenomenal achievements in the areas of famine, disease and war while making provocative predictions about the evolutionary goals of the 21st century.

Lincoln on Leadership for Today: Abraham Lincoln's Approach to Twenty-first Century Issues

Donald T. Phillips

The author of the best-selling Lincoln on Leadership draws on historical examples, writings and speeches to consider how the 16th President would address such modern-day challenges as race relations, terrorism, gun control and special-interest influence.