

HOT TITLES

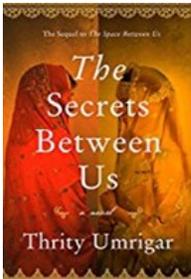

JUNE 2018

Fiction

How Hard Can It Be? by Allison Pearson

The heroine from the best-selling I Don't Know How She Does It is forced by her husband's flaky unemployment to reinvent herself as a younger, hip professional to secure a job with the hedge fund she founded.

The Secrets Between Us by Thrity Umrigar

After being fired from her job as a servant, Bhima forms a partnership with Parvati to sell produce at the local market and makes her first true friend, in a follow up to The Space Between Us.

Us Against You by Fredrik Backman

The community of Beartown is divided by an effort to save the local hockey team that involves a challenging new hockey coach, three promising players and a dangerously competitive competition. By the best-selling author of A Man Called Ove.

The Word Is Murder by Anthony Horowitz

The best-selling author of Moriarty reinvents himself as the fictional sidekick of a disgraced police detective whose dark and mysterious secrets complicate the case of a woman found strangled hours after planning her own funeral.

Bring Me Back by B.A. Paris

A decade after a man's wife disappears without a trace, his new fiancée makes a discovery that raises questions about what happened and whether his first wife may still be alive. By the best-selling author of The Breakdown.

The Favorite Sister by Jessica Knoll

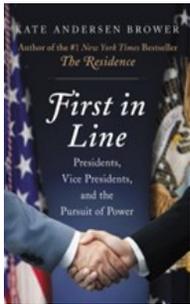

Set in the world of a reality television show, a thriller from the author of the New York Times best-seller Luckiest Girl Alive tells the story of two sisters, one of whom won't come out alive.

The Woman in the Woods by John Connolly

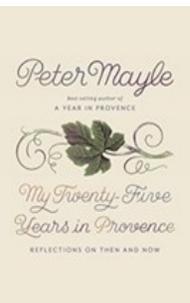

When the body of a woman who apparently died in childbirth is discovered in the Maine woods, private investigator Charlie Parker shadows the police investigation in order to discover the woman's identity and the fate of her baby.

Non-Fiction

First in Line: Presidents, Vice Presidents, and the Pursuit of Power by Kate Andersen Brower

From the author of First Women and The Residence comes an intimate look at the men who are next in line to the most powerful office in the world—the vice presidents of the modern era—from Richard Nixon to Joe Biden to Mike Pence.

My Twenty-Five Years in Provence: Reflections on Then and Now by Peter Mayle

The best-selling author of A Year in Provence offers vivid recollections from his 25 years in the South of France—lessons learned, culinary delights enjoyed and changes observed.

Teen

